

Terms of Use

The Region of Waterloo along with its area municipalities and WaterlooEDC will use data collected through the Workplace Count as summarized in the following table.

Data	Terms of Use
Business Name	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Description	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Contact Information
Business Address	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Phone Number	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Mailing Address	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Email	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Website	Private (except if opted to be included in the business directory)
Business Details
Business type	Aggregate
Number of Employees	Aggregate
Hybrid work (office businesses) (4) questions	Aggregate
Total Floor Space	Aggregate
NAICS	Aggregate
Year Business Established	Private

Region of Waterloo Workplace Count 2024

Public

The Region of Waterloo, area municipalities and WaterlooEDC may use this information publicly, unless otherwise notified. For example, this information may be used in a regional or municipal business directory, or on an interactive web map.

Aggregate

The Region of Waterloo, area municipalities and WaterlooEDC may use this information publicly in an aggregated form. For example, the floor space square footage of a specific business will not be made public, but the total amount of floor space in a municipality could be used publicly.

Private

The Region of Waterloo, area municipalities and WaterlooEDC will only use this information for internal purposes and will not share or publish the information. If a business requested to be included in the business directory, they consent to having the business name and contact information made publicly available.