Policy Statement:

The Regional Municipality of Waterloo (the “Region”) is committed to embedding the principles of equity and inclusion into the way the Region does business, delivers service and provides opportunities.

Definitions:

“Diversity” is the range of characteristics that make individuals unique. These characteristics include, but are not limited to, dimensions such as national origin, ancestry, language, race, color, disability, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status and family structures.

“Inclusion” is creating an atmosphere that promotes a sense of belonging where everyone feels respected and valued for their uniqueness. In an inclusive environment each person is recognized and developed, and their skills are routinely tapped in to. In an inclusive environment people are valued because of, not in spite of, their differences so everyone can fully participate and thrive.

“Equity” is a distinct process of recognizing differences that are inherent within individuals in order to achieve equality in all aspects of an individual’s life. When people are treated equitably, they are recognized for their visible and invisible differences.

“Discrimination” usually includes not individually assessing the unique merits, capacities and circumstances of a person, instead making stereotypical assumptions based on a person’s presumed traits. Discrimination has the impact of excluding persons, denying benefits or imposing burdens.
